

Al Naba Group applauds HM in special National Day gala

MUSCAT: Al Naba Holding Co. observed the Sultanate's 45th National Day with a special celebration that saw management executives and staff coming together to pay collective tribute to His Majesty Sultan Qaboos.

The chairman and founder of Al Naba Holding began the celebrations with a brief address that underscored the pivotal role played by His Majesty the Sultan in shepherding the nation to progress and prosperity during his over four decades-long reign, says a press release.

The chairman also applauded renaissance that he ushered 45 years ago.

He hailed in particular the government's continuing support for efforts to involve young Omanis in nation-building.

Addressing the large gathering, the chairman said: "On behalf of each one of you, I take this opportunity to wish His Majesty good health and a long life, so he may continue to lead this blessed renaissance. I also extend heartfelt thanks to the government for its steadfast support to the private sector, which is evident from its continuing commitment
